

RavenSun at Serenity Station

Native American Flute World Percussion and Guitar
Sunday, September 7th, 2008, 1pm-3pm

Outside - FREE

Lunch Food & Drink Will Be Sold
Plus Some Native American Selections

[Bring Lawn Chairs]

David Rose, a lifelong musician of Mexican and Native American heritage now resides with his wife in Elizabethtown, PA. David has recorded two solo CDs entitled, "Kokopelli Songs" and "From the Spirit," and, with the band Painted Raven, has released "Spirit Journey." David plays Native American flute, acoustic guitar, electric guitar, and keyboards. David records in his home studio Pandora's Studio, has completed coursework in recording and mixing, and is in the Music Merchandising Program at Harrisburg Area Community College. David has presented numerous public lectures and demonstrations, and has conducted workshops on Native American flute playing technique.

Appearing with David Rose (Painted Raven) is Jeff Kuhn. Jeff has played professionally around the York, Harrisburg and Lancaster area as a Bassist, Guitarist, and Percussionist. After receiving his BA in Music from York College, Jeff performed in Country, Bluegrass, Rock, Jazz, and Americana bands, as well as being a staff musician for several local churches and the York Symphony. He brings his unique and diverse style to the RavenSun as a writer, guitarist, bassist and percussionist.